

Maywood Church of Christ Privacy Policy:

We respect the privacy of our customers. This Privacy and Security statement is designed to help you understand what information we gather online and what we do with that information. Because maywoodchurchofchrist.org will continue to implement new technologies and improve the services and features we provide, this policy is subject to change without prior notice. For that reason, we encourage you to review the privacy policy periodically.

We will not sell your personal or credit card information. Registered users will be notified by email of any material changes in either the scope of the privacy seal, the language of the privacy notice or our information practices and given the chance to opt out of any new uses. By using our website, you agree to the terms of the privacy policy in effect at that time. The type of information we gather online is summarized into six general categories. The following explains why we collect this information and how we use it.

General Tracking Information

We keep track of the pages visited by each user. Our Web server automatically collects some information about you when you request pages from our server, including your IP address. Your IP address is a number that is used by computers connected to the Internet to identify your computer so that data (such as the Web pages you request) can be sent to you.

We aggregate this data with data on the pages visited by other users to track overall visitor traffic patterns. We use this information to improve maywoodchurchofchrist.org by making it more responsive to the needs and preferences of our users.

This information does not identify you personally. On occasion we may provide this aggregate information to vendors, investors, potential advertisers or news agencies to demonstrate the amount of interest in maywoodchurchofchrist.org and to help us plan for technical infrastructure requirements.
